Reservation Requirements

The renter must confirm costume availability directly with Tidewater Dancewear. A costume is considered booked only after both the signed agreement and full payment have been received.

Ownership

All costumes remain the sole property of Tidewater Dancewear at all times. The renter acquires no ownership rights through the rental agreement.

Alterations and Care

Only gentle steaming is permitted. The only authorized alteration is the movement of the metal bars at the back closure of the tutu or bodice for fitting purposes. All other alterations, including sewing, cutting, gluing, pinning, dyeing, removing embellishments, or structural changes, are strictly prohibited without written permission.

Damage, Loss, and Replacement Costs

The renter accepts responsibility for the costume during the entire rental period, including transit. Any damage beyond ordinary wear, loss, theft, irreparable damage, or failure to return the costume may result in repair fees or replacement charges up to the full replacement value of the costume.

Authorization to Invoice

By signing this agreement, the renter expressly authorizes Tidewater Dancewear to issue an invoice for approved repair costs, cleaning costs beyond normal maintenance, replacement costs, or the full value of any costume that is lost, destroyed, or not returned.

Shipping and Returns

The renter is responsible for following all return instructions provided by Tidewater Dancewear. Costumes must be returned on or before the agreed return date unless other arrangements have been made in writing.

Agreement

I have read and understand this Rental Agreement and agree to abide by all terms and conditions set forth by Tidewater Dancewear.
